

THREE KILLED IN CROSSING SMASH AT NORTH JUDSON

Father and Two Boys Killed Outright When Train Hits Buggy—Mother May Also Die.

NORTH JUDSON, Ind., Nov. 10.—Three killed and one probably fatally injured is the result of an accident at the C. & E. railroad crossing about one mile east of here at 6 o'clock Saturday night. Henry Brenlein and his two children, Otto H. and Norman, are dead and it is doubtful that Mrs. Brenlein will recover from injuries received in the accident.

The family was on its way to a family reunion that was to be held at the home of Mrs. Brenlein's parents, Mr. and Mrs. August Adams, Sunday, in a buggy, when they were struck by the west bound train, No. 2, which, it was said, was running at a rate of 50 miles an hour. Otto Brenlein, 10 years old, was thrown nearly 300 feet from the scene of the accident and is believed to have been killed instantly, as was the case with the three months old baby, Norman, who was found in the arms of his mother. The buggy was demolished and the horse killed.

The accident was not discovered until nearly 9:30, when Frank Rimmer and daughter, who were walking home from North Judson, heard the groans of the injured woman. They immediately summoned doctors from this city and the woman and the body of the child were removed at once to the Adams home. It was not until sometime later that the body of Brenlein was discovered, and it was not until after midnight that the older boy's body was found.

Father's Body Mangled. Brenlein was removed to the Adams home as soon as he was found. He lived until after 1 o'clock Sunday morning. His body was terribly mangled, his skull crushed and one leg and his arms were broken. The doctors were surprised that he lived as long as he did. The two children are thought to have been killed instantly.

The train did not stop until it had reached Crown Point, where bits of wood, clothing and blood were found on the front of the engine, which was in charge of Engineer John Wonderly, who is said to be one of the oldest men on the Erie railroad. He said that he thought he had hit something at the crossing, but that he was not positive until the finding of the traces at Crown Point. It is the general supposition that the cause of the accident was due to the fact that the headlights were not lighted, and that the whistle for the crossing was not blown. That is the reason given by residents of that section and authorities here.

While there is a chance that the woman will survive, it is feared by the doctors that she is suffering from serious internal injuries. She was badly cut and bruised and is suffering severely from the effects of the shock. She was eager for news of the condition of the other members of the family, but the true state of affairs was withheld from her on the advice of the doctors until late Sunday afternoon.

Brenlein and family lived in Bremen and had come by train to North Judson, where they were met with a buggy by Christ Adams, who is Mrs. Brenlein's brother. The family were to ride out to the residence in the buggy and Adams was to walk. A family reunion, in which members from Chicago and other places, who had not visited home for some time, were to be present, was to be held Sunday. The accident occurred within sight of the home.

HOUSE WILL GIVE MISS WILSON SILVER

Genevieve Clark Selected by Representative Mann to Chose the Present.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Miss Genevieve Clark, daughter of Champ Clark, speaker of the house of representatives, returned to Washington Sunday. She came here last week to select, for the house of representatives a suitable wedding present for Miss Jessie Wilson, daughter of the president.

Miss Clark's return to Washington was apparently unexpected and followed telegrams and letters from her father and from Rep. Mann, the republican minority leader in the house, who commissioned her to select the wedding present. In making her selection, she said she was guided by the present which seemed to demand some sort of a silver set.

FARMER FATALLY SHOOT TRAPPER

Makes Vain Attempt to Hurry Man to Hospital to Save His Life.

WEST HAVEN, Vt., Nov. 10.—After he had shot and fatally injured Chas. Gordon, a hunter and trapper, Sunday, Wm. Koch, Jr., a prosperous farmer of this town, summoned three physicians on a special train from Whitehall to attend his victim and chartered a yacht to hurry the injured man to a hospital in an attempt to save his life. Despite the efforts made in his behalf, Gordon died before reaching the hospital. Koch was removed Sunday to the house of correction in Rutland, after he had been arrested by State Atty. Stafford. The shooting followed a quarrel over some traps Gordon had set on Koch's farm.

WELL KNOWN DOCTOR DIES

Mordecai McDowell, Veteran of Civil War and Ex-Senator.

VINCENNES, Ind., Nov. 10.—Dr. Mordecai M. McDowell, 69, a physician widely known in the state, died here Sunday. He was a veteran of the Civil war and a former state senator. He was the father of Dr. James D. McDowell, mayor of this city.
